CONGRESS SPENDS $1,080,000,000

Costliest Session in History of the Country Is Now Coming to a Close

TWO PORK BAR'LS DID IT

Public Buildings Bill Passed This Morning After a Long and Hot Session

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—The appropriations made by congress at this session are the largest in the history of the country, reaching $1,080,000,000 as compared with $1044,000,000 last year.

After a hot day's work yesterday, the house remained in session until 1 o'clock this morning, when, amid noisy scenes, the public buildings bill, carrying $20,000,000 was passed, with only five democratic votes recorded against it. They were cast by Sims (Tenn.), Sulzer, (N. Y.), Fitzgerald, (N. Y.), Sabath, (Ill.) and Kerby, (Ind.)

The increase of nearly $40,000,000 in the expenditures this year is due to the fact that two great "pork barrels" of legislation were distributed among the hungry statesmen. They were the rivers and harbors bill and the public building bill. In the past it has been customary to open these barrels in alternate years, but this year the congressmen wanted o feast of all that the legislative table afforded. The rivers and harbors bill, carrying about $50,000,000 has been awaiting the president's signature for some time. It has been reported that he has thus far refrained from signing it to see how congress acted in the closing days.

There has been a saving this year of about $30,000,000 in ordinary appropriations but owing to the opening of the two "pork barrels," the same year, the grand total of the appropriations is unprecedented.

More Public Buildings

When the public buildings appropriations measure reached the senate Senator Scott (R., W. Va.) instantly submitted the report of his committee on it, raising the total from twenty-one million to twenty-six millions of dollars. This quick action broke all records.

Among the appropriations of $10,000 or more added by the senate committee are:

San Diega, Cal., $85,000; Colorado Springs, Colo., $20,000; Granite City, Ill., $10,000; Great Falls, Mont., $15,000; Missoula, Mont., $50,000; Salt Lake City, Utah, $30,000; Bellingham, Washn., $200,000; North Yakima, Washn., $80,000; Springfield, Mo., $100,000; Lincoln, Neb., $200,000; Tulsa, Okla., $135,000; Chanute, Kansas, $75,000; Bozeman, Mont., $75,000; Los Angeles, $250,000.

MISSING JANITOR ON TEXAS RANCH?

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 21.—Chief of Police Carney is at Houston, Texas, provided with necessary requisition papers in case the suspect, located on a Texas ranch, proves to be Joseph Wendling, the missing janitor, wanted for the murder of Alma Kellner. He has been under surveillance since June 13.

Sure it is Wendling

HOUSTON, Texas, June 21.—Joseph Wendling, charged by the Louisville Ky. police with the murder of little Almo Kellner is being held here awaiting requisition papers from the governor of Kentucky. Wendling is said to have been trailed by private detectives from the Canadian to the Mexican border. He was about to cross into Mexico at one point and for some reason turned back and was captured. Wendling is held in the local jail.

Requisition Not Asked

AUSTIN, Texas, June 21.—Emphatic denial was made at the state house today that Gov. T. M. Campbell had received any application for the requisition of Joseph Wendling, wanted in connection with the murder of Alma Kellner, at Louisville, Ky., despite reports sent out that Wendling had been captured at some Texas point and was now held at Houston.

Queries sent to all of the principal cities of the state failed to develop trace of Wendling.

HATCH DECLINES CROOKSTON PLACE

MADISON, Wis., June 21.—Prof. K. L. Hatch announced today he had declined a call to the superintendency of the state agricultural school at Crookston, Minn. He has been at Wisconsin only one year and said he dislikes to leave the work here so soon.

OMAHA BREWER KILLED IN AUTO

OMAHA, Neb., June 21.—Wm. Krug, vice president and general manager of the Krug Brewing company, was instantly killed shortly before noon today in a collision with the car of Al Schultz here. Fred T. McCormick of Denver and Schultz were perhaps fatally injured.

RENO GETS FIGHT; GOVERNOR GLAD

Jeff-Johnson Match Moved to Nevada and Governor Says He will Not Interfere

NEVADA CITY FIGHT CRAZY

Fans Parade Streets All Night Long with Bands, Pianos and Singers on Wagons

RENO, Nev., June 21.—All uncertainty as to where the Jeffries-Johnson fight will be held was removed at noon today when Tex Rickard announced officially the fight would be held at Reno.

RENO, Nev., June 21.—Tex Rickard announced early today that if Reno would pay the $1,000 fight license and guarantee to build an arena, it could have the Jeffries-Johnson fight. This assures Reno of getting the battle.

Following Rickard's announcement which was made in the "wee sma'" hours of this morning, the town is more fight mad than ever. The wildest days of the gold discoveries scarcely outshone today for excitement and the town is in a furore. Tex Rickard is the "whole thing" and Reno would present him with the city if he requested it.

Immediately following Rickard's statement, hurried arrangements were made for raising the necessary funds, and at a mass meeting which began at 9:30 this morning it was expected that enough money would be subscribed to enable Reno to take Rickard at his word and secure the battle. Every prominent merchant in town has promised to subscribe liberally.

The committee of merchants representing Goldfield offered to guarantee Rickard against any loss whatever, but he seemed inclined towards Reno, evidently fearing the long ride across the desert which is necessary to reach Goldfield, would cut down the fight attendance.

Street Parades

Despite the fact that the Renoites had the advantage of being at home did not have anything on the Goldfield boosters when it came to celebrating. All night long the Goldfieldites made the night hideous with their noise. From 10 p. m. till nearly daylight they paraded the streets mounted on wagons on which had been erected platforms for brass bands. One especially prepared wagon platform bore a grand piano and twelve singers who bellowed "Barber Shop" harmonies in the business section all night long.

Governor Wont' Interfere

OGDEN, Utah, June 21.—Gov. Dickerson of Nevada issued a statement on his arrival here from Oregon this morning, declaring emphatically that he would not interfere in any way with the Jeffries- Johnson fight.

He was advised of the enormous volume of protests awaiting him at Carson City, but said they would not make the slightest difference.

Prize Fighting Legalized

The law under which the Jeffries-Johnson fight will be held is the one especially passed by the legislature fourteen years ago in order to legalize the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. This law is still in force. It provides that finish fights can be held in Nevada provided that a $1,000 state license is paid and that both principals in the battle submit to a physical examination by competent physicians. These requirements are easy for Jeffries and Johnson.

The only possible way in which Gov. Dickerson could stop the fight if he were so inclined, would be by convening of a special session of the legislature.

PROGRESSIVES PLAN FIGHT FOR "TEDDY"

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 21.—The republican state convention convened at 11:15, organized and adjourned at 12 noon. The net session will be held at 2 p. m. Nothing was actually done at the morning session.

Governor A. O. Eberhart has no opposition for re-nomination. Mayor H. P. Keller, temporary chairman, "straddled" in the opening address, wholly ignoring mention of tariff, and called President Taft a "worthy successor" of Roosevelt.

A hot fight is expected in committee on resolutions, where the progressives will make a stand for downward revision and fealty to the Roosevelt policies.

DR. MORIKUBO TO LEAVE CITY

Dr. S. Morikubo, chiropractor, will leave about July 1 for Minneapolis where he will look over the field with the idea of locating. The doctor says he has received word from his brother in Japan that should he move to a larger city and desire to establish a sanitarium that he would back him with the required amount of money to undertake the project. Dr. Morikubo says his brother will send a representative to Minneapolis to look over the field and if it is favorable an institute will be erected there.

DEMAND TEDDY SPEAK IN CHICAGO

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., June 21.—The first of the Roosevelt boomers, H. M. Hobson, secretary of the Hamilton Club of Chicago, dropped in on the colonel at Sagamore Hill today. He breakfasted there and announced later that he had arranged for a committee from the club to meet Roosevelt at the offices of the Outlook tomorrow.

The committee will demand that the former president keep a tentative engagement and address the club as its guest when he makes his visit to the national conservation congress at St. Paul.

Col. Roosevelt spent much time today with his correspondence. He stuck to his announced intention of receiving no callers who had not a previous engagement and declined to meet any interviewers. This village has resumed its normal appearance.

The police force is still wearing his new uniform and keeping a close watch on all arrivals. He declared today that while he did not expect any cranks to show up, he intended to be in readiness.

Col. Roosevelt will come to New York on the early train tomorrow and take up his regular duties as associate editor of the Outlook.

On the noon train Gen. Luke E. Wright, former secretary of war, and governor general of the Philippines, arrived, and found Col. Roosevelt's new automobile waiting for him. He said he had called merely to have a friendly chat with the colonel.

WILL TRY TO PROVE A BRIBERY PLOT

CHICAGO, June 21.—The appearance of Lieutenant Governor John G. Oglesby, among the witnesses at the trial of Lee O'Neil Browne today led to the belief that the defense had definitely decided to attempt to prove a gigantic political plot is behind the charges of bribery in the election of United States Senator Lorimer and that Lorimer would be called to testify, probably tomorrow.

MIX STEEL TRUST IN CORRUPTION

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 21.—Surprise was sprung this morning in the Sangamon county grand jury investigation of legislative corruption when State's Attorney Burke failed to appear at his usual hour and it was announced he was in Chicago. For what purpose he has gone there is not stated by any of his deputies, if they know, but the best guess is that he is inquiring into certain phases of the submerged lands bills which the steel trust got through the last general assembly enabling it to buy a large amount of made land along the South Chicago lake front for a very reasonable price.

TEXANS BURN A NEGRO AT STAKE

Mob Then Quietly Disbands and No Arrests will Be Made; Killed Girl on Lonely Road

RUSK, Texas, June 21.—An investigation started today in an effort to apprehend the leaders of the mob which last night burned Leonard Johnson, a negro, at the stake, was a failure. The work of the mob was done quietly and after the negro was dead all dispersed to their homes. No arrests are expected. Johnson was taken from Sheriff Norwood after he had been arrested, suspected of slaying Miss Maude Redding, whose body had been found on a lonely road, her throat cut from ear to ear. Johnson was taken back near where the body was found and is said to have confessed to the murder. He was quickly tied to a stake and after brush had been piled about him it was set afire. The negro begged for mercy but was burned to death within a half hour.

Miss Redding left her home late yesterday to go to Lone Star and was attacked on the road. Johnson was arrested shortly afterward and Sheriff Norwood was enroute to Rusk with his prisoner when overtaken by the mob.

CLOSED BRIDGE CAUSE OF A $400,000 FIRE

HICAGO, June 21.—Fire today destroyed the four story factory here of the Griess-Pfleger Tannery company of Cincinnati causing a loss of $400,000.

The fact t hat a bridge across the Chicago river is closed for repairs delayed the fire department and was reponsible for the destruction of the building.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 21.—The result of yesterday's election as announced this afternoon, shows that Birmingham has adopted the commission form of government by a vote of 8 to 1.

$500,000 FOR PORTLAND

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—The senate today inserted in the public buildings bill $500,000 for Portland, for the purchase of a site.

CAR MEN AND THE COMPANY TO AGREE

Today the agreement entered into last June by the La Crosse City Railway company and its employes, following the street car strike expired and for a few weeks the unionists and officials of the company have been negotiating a new agreement. At a meeting tonight the new agreement will probably be agreed to and signed. It is understood to be satisfactory to both sides, and in effect continues in force the present scale for a period of two years, with a few minor changes. The agreement includes motormen and conductors.

LIKE A WET HEN, TAFT BOILING HOT

Cancels New Haven Trip to "Big Stick" His Pet Postal Savings Bank Bill

THOUGHT HE HAD IT FIXED

But Democrats and Insurgents Say They Are Not Bound by Promises of "Regulars"

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—The first glimpse of the big stick which legislators have seen since March 4, 1909, came today when President Taft cancelled his New Haven trip and declared he was here to stay as long as necessary to accomplish a "satisfactory" postal savings bank bill.

His announcement is apt to precipitate a big fight, as the insurgents and democrats in the senate evidently have solemnly set out to force changes in the bill, which the president demands the senate accept without amendment.

The president is angry clear through. After he had "paved the way" for the senate to accept the house bill and had been assured that the measure would go through without a hitch, he feels indignant because several senators have refused to fulfill this program. The executive, it is said, declared today that he was ready to stay here all summer in order to make certain that the postal bill passed.

The democrats and insurgents in the senate say that the senate worked over a bill, perfected it, and adopted it and that it is not within reason to ask them tomorrow to adopt as a substitute a measure entirely different. They say they are in no way bound by any promise that may have been made to the president by the regular republicans.

Feels for Insurgents

The president believes that the senate measure is a special privilege bill. He also feels pledged to stand by the house bill because of the fact that a number of house insurgents went so far as to caucus on the bill and departed from their insurgency enough to take the unprecedented step of voting for the rule by which it was passed in the house. The president feels that he ought to stand by these men.

The information that a number of senators had planned a filibuster against the measure came to the president last night. He sat up until late reviewing the situation and went to his office today determined to fight. If the measure goes to conference he believes that an attempt will be made to write in "special privilege legislation" and he has been assured that the house will not adopt any such measure.

Bailey is Game

Senator Bailey, democrat of Texas, who yesterday declared he was ready to filibuster against the bill to increase the efficiency of the engineer corps, was in conference with the president today. When he emerged there was no let up to his beligerency.

"They'll either have to abandon that bill, or they will be here through August,' he shouted over his shoulder to the newspaper men.

Mrs. Taft also cancelled her contemplated trip to New Haven and will remain here with the president for the present.

DROUTH SENDS WHEAT SKYWARD

CHICAGO, June 21.—Buying orders poured into the wheat pit today as the result of the drought in the northwest and prices advanced from two to three cents over last night's close within a few minutes after the opening market and remained strong and nervous all day.

The alarm is greatest in the points nearest the affected territory and prices at Minneapolis advanced four and five cents.

The closing quotations showed an increase over the opening prices of 2¼ cents each in July and September wheat and 2⅜ cents in December.

COUSINS HANGED TOGETHER TODAY

LANCASTER, Pa., June 21.—Insisting to the last that they had not meant to kill, Walter W. Aston and Benjamin Aston, cousins, were hanged from the same scaffold in the county jail here today. Accompanied by Paul Fornwalt, now serving a twenty years sentence, the men went to the home of Alfred Hallman, an aged man, on Jan. 31 last, planning to rob him. While they were gathering the silverware together the old man discovered them and Walter Aston shot him.

GUNNERS IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 21.—The eleventh grand American handicap shoot began at the Chicago Gun Club traps today with three hundred shooters from all parts of the country participating. Today's program consists of five preliminay events, four of which are singles, twenty targets in each, while the fifth is at ten doubles.

GERMANS WRATHY AT BEER CHARGE

Say Kaiser Is Almost a "Teetotaler" and He Never Indulged Too Much

FRENCH DOCTOR CONDEMNED

Emperor Only Recently Condemned Students for Drinking Too Freely at School

BERLIN, June 21.—The beer drinking charge made against the kaiser by Dr. Doyen of Paris has aroused great resentment in Berlin and resulted in denials on every hand. A member of the emperor's entourage, presumably speaking officially, made the following answer to Doyen's "diagnosis" of the kaiser's trouble:

"The beer story is impossible. The kaiser has been practically a teetotaler for some years and never did indulge freely in beer, liquor or wine. Even at the state banquets the kaiser refrains from drinking champagne, substituting in place of it a non-alcoholic beverage resembling wine in color only.

"Barely six weeks ago the kaiser publicly condemned the students of Heidelberg for their beer drinking. In the kaiser's student days, when a German youth is supposed to enjoy the greatest freedom, he was decidedly temperate and has never been otherwise. The only beer the kaiser ever drank was the lightest brew and he has not touched even this for three years."

The kaiser starts for Kiel Wednesday to witness the naval regatta.

It is set forth by Berlin authorities that the Frenchman's "diagnosis" was a matter of national rivalry as the French drink wine freely, and even though the Kaiser did drink beer freely, this could not possibly harm him, so long as he used ordinary moderation in its consumption.

OHIO DEMOCRATS ENDORSE HARMON

DAYTON, Ohio, June 21.—The presidential aspiration of Gov. Judson Harmon will be endorsed formally by a specific plank in the platform to be adopted by the democratic state convention which convenes here at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Gov. Harmon was finally won over to the argument that it is best to take no chances with fickle political popularity and thereby risk untoward developments before the chance for another endorsement rolls around.

One feature of pre-convention developments is the alignment of the liquor men and labor element against corporation dictation of supreme court judges.

It is practically settled that Atlee Pomerene of Canton, Tom Johnson's candidate, whom Harmon defeated for the gubernatorial nomination, will be Gov. Harmon's running mate this year.

Gov. Harmon this afternoon declared personally in favor of popular endorsement of candidates for the United States senate but announced against such action by this convention because of the lack of opportunity of candidates to present their claims to the delegates.

BROWNE DEFENSE RESTS CASE TODAY

CHICAGO, June 21.—The defense in the trial of Lee O'Neil Browne sprung a big surprise shortly after noon today by resting its case without calling United States Senator Wm. Lorimer to the witness stand and without making any attempt to prove that a political plot is responsible for the charges against the defendant. Lieutenant Governor Oglesby, whose appearance among the witnesses today led to the belief that Lorimer would be called, did not testify.

The state will open in rebuttal this afternoon and it is predicted that the case will go to the jury sometime tomorrow.

State Finishes

The state finished its rebuttal at 2:30 o'clock and after the usual motions had been made by the defense and overruled by the court, the attorneys began their final argument. The argument will probably consume the remainder of the afternoon and the court is expected to give the case to the jury tomorrow morning.

State's Attorney Wayman will be the only speaker for the state. Attorneys O'Donnell, Erbstein and Forrest will argue for the defense.

MUTILATED BODY FOUND IN TRUNK

Westerner Sells Farm and Supposed Wife Is Later Arrested with Real Estate Agent

SHE HAD THE PROCEEDS

Blood Stained Room in a Hotel Proves Dead Man Fought Desperately for His Life

PORTLAND, Ore., June 21.—Jesse P. Webb and Mrs. Alice Johnson were arrested here today on suspicion of murdering Wm. A. Johnson, the woman's supposed husband, whose body was found last night jammed into a trunk in the Union Depot.

The prisoners were taken by the police in the early hours of the morning as they alighted from an automobile in which they had been riding all night. The woman had $1,500 in her clothes when taken. Both Mrs. Johnson and Webb refused to make any statement regarding the sudden disappearance of Johnson and the subsequent finding of his body.

Johnson disappeared mysteriously from his hotel and the police have been searching for him, suspecting murder. When the body was found in the Union Depot it had been forced into a trunk much too small to hold it. The man had been murdered and his body mutilated.

The murder was discovered and the body disclosed when human blood seeped through the trunk upon the depot platform where it was standing. A truckman directed the attention of the police to the trunk and Johnson's room in a local hotel was examined. It was found in great disorder with the mattress blood soaked and the walls of the room stained.

Fought For Life

There were many evidences of a desperate struggle, showing that Johnson had fought hard against his murderer or murderers. Suspicion was directed to Webb when it was learned that he occupied a room in the hotel across the hall from that occupied by Johnson. When taken to the police station, Webb admitted to the desk sergeant that he knew Johnson but said he last saw the slain man alive "down at the union depot." Webb was later identified by the police as a Seattle real estate agent. Johnson and the woman supposed to be his wife recently sold a farm at Kent, near Seattle, for $1,500. The money found on the woman when she was arrested is believed to be the proceeds of this sale.

Drugged and Robbed

The police found what they allege is valuable evidence when they searched Webb. In one of his pockets was a watch which Mrs. Johnson identified as the property of her husband. Two blood stained handkerchiefs were found in another pocket. It is the theory of the police that Johnson's slayers drugged him before he was slain; that he struggled desperately before submitting to the drug and that he was then deliberately murdered as he lay unconscious.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

Every old sore is an infected spot on the flesh, kept open by constant drainage of impure blood into the place.

One of the principal constituents of blood is plasma, a healing property. Where the circulation is pure this element of the blood, which is of a glutinous or sticky nature, performs the necessary work in healing all sores, wounds and lacerations. It does this by sticking or joining the parts together, while nature causes a knitting of the tissues and solidifies the place.

This healing property is frequently destroyed by impure accumulations in the blood, and this vital fluid not only loses its power to heal, but becomes a source of irritation and disease to any open sore or ulcer on the body. Constantly it discharges its morbid matters into the place, and gradually it causes the infection to spread, and the sore enlarges. The morbid matter in the blood comes from different causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, which breeds disease germs in the system, the retention of the refuse matters of the body because of a sluggish condition of the eliminative members, a continued malarial state of the system, inherited bad blood, etc., are usually responsible.

CURED OF EATING SORE.

Dear Sirs:—I was suffering greatly from a sore on my left breast, which had begun to eat, and at times deep, shooting pains would pass through it, and the ulcer was discharging yellow and rather offensive matter. I consulted physicians, but their treatment did not benefit me very much. My condition seemed hopeless, and I had almost despaired of getting well. I knew that the disease was hereditary in my case, as an only sister, my mother and two of her sisters had died of Cancer of the breast. After I had finished the first bottle of S.S.S. I felt some better, so continued it until I was cured.

MRS. JAMES CASSELL, Belton, Mo.

S.S.S. does not simply cause a scab to come over an old sore, but beginning at the bottom it heals the place permanently by building new tissue and filling in the place with firm, healthy flesh. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

MINNESOTA AND THE NORTHWEST

WORST DROUGHT IN MANY YEARS

Unless Rain Falls Soon the Crops Through Northwest will Be Totally Ruined

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 21.—One of the most serious droughts in the history of the weather bureau has been experienced in the corn and wheat belt in Minnesota and North and South Dakota this spring.

Since March 1 the precipitation in the principal points has varied from 31 to 67 per cent of the normal.

With but one exception, the rainfall during this period has shown a great deficiency over the precipitation record for 1900, when the last serious drought occurred in the corn and wheat belt.

With the small percentage of rainfall comes the handicap of extremely high temperature. As a result the ground Monday was said to be practically parched and the farmers were very apprehensive of their crops.

Minot N. D., wires unless the scorching winds under a bleaching sun and temperature at 108 let up within the next 24 hours, fully fifty per cent of crops in Northwestern North Dakota and Eastern Montana will be damaged beyond all possible recovery.

From Devil's Lake, N. D., reports come that crop conditions are very discouraging and with good rains immediately not more than half an average crop could be hoped for.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. INDICTMEN WEEK FOR ILL. SOLONS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 21.—According to present plans this will be indictment week in the Sangamon county grand jury.

It has resumed its investigations after ten days recess during which the members plowed corn and began hay cutting. Additional indictments will be voted in the furniture deal. The fish inquiry will be closed up. Attorney F. W. Potter of Henry, Ill., who is said to have assisted in the collection of the fish fund is here to testify. Two indictments for conspiracy to bribe are promised in the matter of the fish bill's defeat. Mr. Burke is prepared to ask the Sangamon circuit court to fix the date for the trial of Senator Broderick on the charge of bribing Senator Holtslaw to vote for Lorimer. In addition the grand jury will probably vote another indictment against him for paying Holtslaw a portion of the jack pot. Broderick is believed to be ready to ask postponement of his trial until the next term which will be in September.

States Attorney Burke refreshed by a vacation on the river is prepared now to resume the hearing in the Lorimer side of the scandal, such information, some of vague character and other of more definite nature, but nothing conclusive is in sight and from it he hopes to draw something good.

A large number of members of the legislature, both republican and democrats, have been subpoenaed. Representative Johnson Lawrence of Polo, who has intimated that Hopkins offered him a good thing to stick by him, will be one of the main witnesses probably this week.

VETERANS ARE FOR PERSONAL LIBERTY

NEENAH, Wis., June 21.—At the closing meeting of the State Confederation of German War Veterans, the convention, by a unanimous vote declared in favor of personal liberty and against county option.

The convention came to a close with a business meeting. Kenosha was chosen as the place for holding the convention in 1911.

These officers were chosen: President, M. A. EDWARD PERRY, FIGHTING PARSON

For years it has been well known that New York city was a veritable hot bed of corruption. To stem the tide of corruption and save the government of the city to the people, there have arisen many heroic fighters. The story of this fight would be one of the most interesting to students of the times that could possibly be told.

One of the leading warriors in this great struggle is Edward Russell Perry, who will visit our Chautauqua this season and speak on the subject "Samson Aroused." In this address he discusses, as only a man who has been through the fight can, the awakening of the public consciousness and the signs of widespread reforms.

What La Follette has been in Wisconsin, Perry is to New York city. He has never sought the glory of public office, but he has been a consistent fighter for pure politics and good morals for many years.

Mr. Perry is a member of the American Society of Social Science, and has been active in its operations. He is a live wire, full of fight and vim and will be heard with pleasure by our people.

Keep Your Hair Clean and Bright

(From Eastern Style Reporter)

"It is a problem to keep the hair free from dust during the summer months. If one shampoos with soap and water too often, she is likely soon to find her hair brittle, coarse, dull in color and becoming thin and scanty.

Since dry shampooing has become so popular there is a noticeable improvement in the coiffures one sees at summer resorts, in theaters and other places.

"It is easy to keep the hair clean and bright by using a dry shampoo made by mixing four ounces of orris root with four ounces of therox. Keep the mixture in a sifter-top can and sprinkle a little over the head and brush it out before dressing the hair.

"By this method a satisfactory shampoo is possible in ten or fifteen minutes, and there is no doubt that if this treatment is kept up regularly two or three times a week a better growth of hair will be the result. Therox keeps the hair light and fluffy, making it easy to put up, and giving it a beautiful lustre."

LA CROSSE WANTS THE CHAUTAUQUA

People Are Musical, Intellectual, Fond of Entertainment; Progressive and Up-to-Date

La Crosse Chautauqua begins June 28th at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. This is our third summer assembly. The program has been selected and arranged with great care and there is much coming for each peculiar taste.

Those who have been active before are more active still. Interest that has been awakened by the splendid showing of the past is on the increase. Everything points to the probability that the La Crosse Chautauqua of 1910 will excell all rpecessors in points of excellence as well as patronage.

One of the representatives of the general management said in our office the other day that La Crosse is one of the few large centers where the Chautauqua has a chance. The counter attractions tend to divide the attention of the people, and, for that reason the larger cities are not considered the best points.

But why should not La Crosse maintain a first class Chautauqua assembly? It strikes us that we are eminently qualified, for the following reasons:

La Crosse is musical. There are few places in the whole country that can boast of more genuine musical talent, or show a keener appreciation of good musical offerings. Moreover, our people have taste and know a good thing when they hear it. For this reason the Chautauqua this season should make a particularly strong appeal to our people. The seven high grade musical organizations (including an Italian band of 24 pieces) that will furnish the music for the seven days are sure to find in their audiences hundreds of delighted listeners; for our people are musical.

La Crosse is intellectual, and will appreciate to the full the intellectual treats offered by the lecturers. These range from philosophical treatises on life to the science of government and the values to be discovered in moral pursuits. Some of the ablest champions of popular causes are on our program and the array is certainly inviting to people who like to think.

Our city has a large proportion of intellectual people. Our lawyers, ministers, doctors, teachers and professional people generally are in the very forefront of modern thought. And outside the professions, learning and a deep desire to know are abundantly diffused. From the intellectual standpoint the Chautauque will find a large and enthusiastic following.

La Crosse is interested in government. The great political upheaval that is upon us has able champions in La Crosse representing both sides. Our people have been through many campaigns for the reform of the state and the name of Wisconsin has been borne nation wide as a synonym for the square deal.

Therefore when that distinguished statesman, Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota, or the idol of the newest state, Senator Thomas P. Gore, arises to speak, they can be assured that their patriotic utterances will fall upon prepared ears and that every word will find full appreciation.

La Crosse likes entertainment. No city in the middle west can stand more of it. Entertainers of every legitimate stripe find La Crosse a harvest field. For this reason the Chautauqua will have a further appeal, as the program is strong in entertainment. The coming of Strickland W. Gillilan, for instance, gives assurance of a royal humorist treat. And there are others as good in their lines.

La Crosse is moral; and lends her sympathies to moral ends. We may not be as sanctimonious as some cities; but neither is the Chautauqua sanctimonious. It is a clean, wholesome week of uplift and fun and La Crosse is for all of that.

La Crosse is prosperous, and can afford a Chautauqua. Our people are not rag pickers and dependents but in the main a thrifty and prudent lot of folks. There is not a man in the city who is not financially able to patronize the Chautauqua from first to last and not miss a session.

Last of all La Crosse is progreshive, and we do not propose to let any good thing get past us. The Chautauqua is a free forum where able men lay bare the latest thought. We not only will stand for that but cry for more. We refuse to take to the rut. We are for going forward.

Now if there is any old crusty in the city, let him kick and stay away. But La Crosse is a Chautauqua center because of her abundant qualifications, or we have entirely misread the signs.

DR. A. A. WILLETS

Dr. A. A. Willets, familiarly known as "Sunshine Willets," is the oldest lecturer on the American platform, and the most loved. In his ninetieth year he is full of vigor and radiates the light of which his soul is so full.

No one can hear him without great profit. Tens of thousands have testified to the uplift they have felt from his superb platform work.

"The Apostle of Sunshine," as Willets is termed by those who have learned to love him, leaves the community brighter and better for his visit. There is no method by which could be calculated the good he has done mankind. His coming to our Chautauqua should be the signal for a record breaking attendance.

REFUSED CENSUS FACTS; TRIAL HERE

MADISON, Wis., June 21.—(Special.)—Stanley M. Bushnell of Potosi, Wis., was arraigned in the federal court charged with refusing to give information to a census enumerator. This is the first case of the kind in the state. Bushnell pleaded not guilty and furnished bonds for his appearance at La Crosse next September.

AMERICAN GIRL MARRIES A PEER

LONDON, June 21.—The British peerage claimed another trans-Atlantic beauty in the marriage of Miss Mildred Ridgely Carter, daughter of John Ridgely Carter, first secretary to the American embassy in London and present United States minister to the Balkan states, to Archibald Charles Montague Brabazon, viscount Acheson and heir to the earldom of Gosford.

Even court mouring, did not prevent one of the most fashionable audiences ever gathered in London, from witnessing the ceremoney.

Lord Acheson comes from an old Irish family and his father owns huge tracts of land in Ireland and elsewhere.

ALL REVOLUTIONISTS WILL BE SHOT DOWN

Walking!

The Old Way. The New Way.

IF SOMEONE should suggest that you walk from Boston to Chicago you would be indignant. But even this long trip would be small compared to the needless miles you walk during the year in your kitchen.

A mere twenty extra minutes a meal figures up to 1,095 miles per year in steps that are simply wasted energy.

The tremendous popularity of the low priced Hoosier Kitchen Cabinet is due to the fact that it saves all these steps—puts your kitchen at fingers' ends.

You can see this great cabinet with its full equipment at our store this week—and the price is very small.

$3.00 down $1.00 per week Isn't it easy.

A SIGNAL SUCCESS

Much interest centers in educational affairs in the city this week and the prospect of two splendid institutions, the La Crosse high school and the state normal, turning out a large number of enthusiastic graduates is indeed a pleasing one.

Particular impression was made by the fete day program of the normal which took place at Myrick park under the auspices of Miss Ada Thayer. The notable feature of this performance was the evidence of the encroachment of the esthetic upon the heavier physical element in modern physical culture. This digression from strength alone to grace, beauty and suppleness is most attractive, nor has it come at any sacrifice of the beneficial results of such endeavor. Indeed, it is now conceded by the best informed talent that it conduces to more valuable physical development than does the heavier and older mode.

The trend from the gymnasium to out-of-door exercises is foreign in its origin, and as old as the hills of Greece, and there will be none to challenge that in the more ample and fresher atmosphere of park and lawn body culture is pursued at its best advantage.

When the long column of normal students, the kindergarten tots in the lead, and gradually graded up in order of height, broke over a rolling mound at Myrick park and advanced into the sodded arena, expressions of admiration and delight broke from the crowds of spectators. It was an inspiring sight. The graceful movement in unison, the pretty figures, the display of joyful health and trained agility made the spectacle one long to be remembered.

To the closer observer the thought must have occurred that back of this exquisite display, which was pursued in perfect rhythm without break or jar, there was a master mind under whose direction the beautiful program moved. There was. Miss Thayer is a physical director whose genius for the work made her the ready beneficiary of the excellent training by which she was prepared for her duties. She has studied under Dr. Dudley Sargent, physical director of Harvard college, Cambridge. Her knowledge of the German system was acquired in the Turnverein of the Indianapolis normal. She studied Delsarte in Boston and specialized at Columbia as well as Harvard, putting the finishing touches upon her studies abroad, especially in the English and German schools.

No better evidence that this preparatory work was fruitful is needed than that afforded by fete day. It was a splendid success, and it opened the normal commencement week with a feature fulfilling the expectations of the most ardent friends of the new institution.

A TRUE WORD SPOKEN

In his baccalaureate address to students of the high school, Rev. J. S. Lowe selected a vital topic, one about which today revolves the greatest problem that has ever confronted a republican government. He put it up to the graduates that now, on the threshhold of active life, they must decide whether righteousness is to be put before prosperity, or prosperity before righteousness.

Because men of great intelligence have for generations been putting prosperity before righteousness, they have cornered prosperity, at the sacrifice of fair dealing between man and man, and of justice to the majority of men. A great fight is now on to dethrone this sort of prosperity and to place the scepter in the hands of righteousness. These graduates must take part in that fight. Rev. Lowe told them the truth. They must decide which shall be first in their lives—prosperity or righteousness.

NOT ONE OF THE HERETICS

That impulsive child of nature, the Hon. James Schoolcraft Sherman, has been imposed upon and should be informed of the deceit practiced on his confiding nature. Mr. Sherman was brought west and in Wisconsin, citadel of La Follette and of everything which is not standpatism (saving only the Hon. Isaac Stephenson), was shown a convention which met the fullest approval of his jocannonized soul.

Mr. Sherman saw and returned east elated. Since then much vice presidential rejoicing has been heard that so important a sovereign state as Wisconsin had seen the error of its insurgent ways. As soon as his singing of hallelujahs subsides and gives him time for other pursuits, we recommend the reading of the following extract from the editorial comment of the Milwaukee Journal:

"'We, the Republicans of Wisconsin,' is what the convention called itself. It had no right in any way to speak for the Republicans of Wisconsin. It was not in any way representative of the Republican party of Wisconsin. It was clearly and unqualifiedly unrepresentative. The members of the convention were selected by a few. They were selected by star chamber processes. There was no call for a nominating convention; there was no caucus; there was nothing except silent, secret, underground plugging to fill the Auditorium with sympathetic spirits. And, to cap the climax, fewer than 500 men, counting spectators, were in the hall during the last session of the convention, when all its important business was transacted in the name of the 'Republicans of Wisconsin.' It was a farce, a howling, screaming farce."

Such things have been done before. We recommend the pianissimo for Mr. Sherman's performance—unless, indeed, he wishes to rejoice that they were able to get away with it. In which case let us turn loose fortissimo and keep it up until daybreak.

No, the above is not an effusion of this particular editorial sanctum, nor is it a clipping from the columns of any of the cantankerous "half-breed" papers that are spreading "political heresy" in this state. It is just an off-hand opinion from that staid and matter-of-fact and reliable old public journal, the Chicago Tribune.

Discussing the passage by the senate of the house conservation bill, which it deems not fatally defective, the Chicago Record-Herald says that, "It is unfortunate that the edge of the president's success in this detail of his policy as a conservationist is badly dulled by the impression left upon the public by the Ballinger-Pinchot inquiry, and especially by that phase of it for which Secretary Ballinger himself was responsible. If there was a disposition before Mr. Ballinger went on the stand, presumably in his own behalf, to withhold judgment in his case, he made short work of it. Mr. Ballinger's protestations of loyalty to the cause of conservation can no longer warm the heart of any real friend of that cause. Under examination, in the light of his actions, associations, and painfully elicited opinions, it rapidly faded away. It seems to belong to the category of the wolf's grandmotherly interest in Little Red Riding Hood."

Every one who goes to Chautauqua will carry away infinitely more than is represented by the cost of admission.

Following the success of "The Fly Pest," a film showing the dangers of the house fly, a moving picture firm will issue another educational film dealing with the milk supply.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

Handicapped

Young cupid crouched beside a stone
And rubbed his arrow to a point
And grumbled in a monotone;
"The times, the times are out of joint.

"I would I knew some kind of dope,
Some stuff so filled with potent charms,
"Twould make a youth start on a lope
To clasp his loved one in his arms.

"I wish I knew a kind of brew
To smear upon my arrow tips
That would make selfishness skiddoo
And everything but love eclipse.

"I met a goodly youth yestreen,
Out walking with a lovely maid;
They sought a tussock soft and green
And sat them on it in the shade.

"Quick I unslung my quiver then,
And my stout bow I swiftly strung,
I said, 'Here goes to try again!'
The string twangled and the arrow sung.

"He felt the sting and gave a jerk,
And all his thoughts were plain to me;
He loved—but thought of all the work
'Twould take to earn her lingerie.

"I pulled the bowstring to my ear
And sent another arrow, 'Raus!'
He thought: 'I love her, but how dear—
How more than dear is porterhouse!'

"I shot again! Again he leapt!
Again the look of loving crossed
His face, his hand near her hand crept—
Then he thought of her bonnet's cost.

"I thought! 'Gadzooks! I love! Here goes
To swat an arrow into her!
Sometimes a maiden does propose:
I hit her, and I saw her stir.

"I saw her eyes light in their turn
With love—then saw the light renege!
She thought: 'I won't! He does not earn
Enough—and I can't fry an egg.

"I shot again. Again she stirred;
Some more love light, another jar—
She thought: 'I can't wed him!' My word!
I'd never get a motor car!'

"I wish I had an arrow keen
Would bring the cost of living low,
My luck's the worst I've ever seen;
I might as well unstring my bow!"

Embarrassing

"Dear me, Tommy," remarked the young man who had been calling five years, "this is a fine thick rug in front of the sofa."

"Yes, pa gave it to sis," confided Tommy.

"Very nice of him, I am sure.'

"Yes; he did it on your account, though."

"My account!"

"I should say so. Pa said he was afraid you were getting cold feet and—"

But just then a small boy was grabbed by a blushing young lady and locked in the basement—Chicago News.

Slow Farming

"It says here that the government is going to encourage snail farming,' remarked the oldest inhabitant as he opened his weekly paper in the country store.

"Give me the paper, Hezekiah," hastened the farmer who had just come in with a basket of eggs.

"What do you want with it, Jason?"

"By cricky, I want to show it to my hired man and let him apply for a job on one of them snail farms."

"Shucks! An ordinary hired man wouldn't be any use on a snail farm. The blamed critters would run over him."—Chicago News.

Health and Beauty Answers

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN

Grace H.: You should not have wrinkles or a coarse-looking complexion at your age. The use of a good complexion cream will be a big aid in your efforts to have a smooth, velvety complexion. Dissolve an ounce of almozoin in a half-pint cold water, and add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. Stir and let stand over night. Use this cream freely and it will do wonders for you in eradicating those wrinkles and making smaller those large, dust-collecting pores below the eyes. This cream jelly is very fine for removing blackheads, pimples and any undesirable discolorations of the skin. It contains no grease or oil to cause a growth of hair, and is unequaled for massaging and removing dust and dirt from the pores of the skin which soap and water will not take out.

Celia: At your request I will repeat the flesh reducing formula which has proven so satisfactory to hundreds of too-fat people. Dissolve four ounces of parnotis in 1½ pints warm water; take one tablespoonful three times a day. This is the harmless remedy which is so well spoken of, and that has proven such a source of relief to over-fat people. Prepare and take as directed, and you will not be bothered with the discomforts of too much flesh in warm weather. It generally reduces excess flesh rapidly without the necessity of dieting.

Rosalie: If spectacles are so objectionable to you on account of making you look older, why don't you try a strengthening tonic for your eyes? Dissolve an ounce of crystos in a half pint water, and put a few drops of this in each eye daily. It is very strengthening to weak, tired or inflamed eyes, and may enable you to do without glasses. Many who have used this simple remedy for granulated eyelids, inflamed, weak, dull and tired eyes tell me it is excellent. I know it is used and prescribed by many oculists, and I have always found it very fine to make one's eyes sparkling and full of expression. It does not smart, but is very soothing and restful.

Mrs. B.: Your husband probably would show more interest in you if you were not so careless about your facial beauty. Men have always been attracted and held by woman's beauty. To get rid of that shiny, greasy, muddy look of your skin, go to the drug store and get four ounces of spurmax, dissolve it in one-half pint hot water, and add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. Apply this to your face, neck and arms, rubbing gently until dry. It will clear up and whiten your skin, and give it that charm of youthful freshness so much envied by all women. This lotion does not show or rub off like powder, and is much better. It is splendid for removing tan, freckles, pimples and sallowness of the skin.

S. T.: If your health were good you would not feel so overcome and tired from the heat. The pimples and blotches are an indication that your blood is out of order. Here is a recipe for an old-fashioned home-made system tonic that has helped many of my friends. Dissolve one-half cup sugar and one ounce kardene in one-half pint alcohol; then add enough boiling water to make a full quart. A tablespoonful of this tonic before each meal helps to purify the blood, arouses a torpid liver and aids digestion. You will soon be rid of that tired feeling and be more ambitious and energetic. This tonic is excellent for clearing up a sallow complexion, restoring lost appetite, removing liver blotches, skin eruptions and toning up the system generally.

Miss B. K.: The worry and bother of wearing hair-nets and veils to make your hair stay up and conceal that dull, stringy, unkept appearance you speok of could easily be avoided if you would stop shampooing with soap. You have made the mistake of thousands of other ladies. The alkali in soap irritates the scalp, makes the hair streaked, dull, coarse and brittle. Doubtless you have always noticed how harsh your scalp felt after a shampoo with soap. If you will shampoo every two weeks with a teaspoonful of canthrox dissolved in a cup of hot water your hair will always be light, fluffy and easy to do up, besides looking decidedly neat. This shampoo lathers abundantly, dries quickly, stops itching scalp and cleanses as no other shampoo will. The luxury of extreme cleanliness of the scalp which comes from the use of this shampoo has made it so popular that many of the best hairdressers now use it exclusively. It is inexpensive and can be bought at any drug store.

Mrs. A.: If the hair on your forearms is so coarse and black that you feel embarrassed when you wear short sleeves you are justified in using a remedy to remove it. Delatone is safe and harmless and issuccessfully used to remove superfluous hair from face and forearms. Get an ounce of delatone from your druggist and mix it with enough water to make a paste. Cover the skin from which you wish to remove the hair with this paste and let it remain two or three minutes, then wipe off and wash with warm water. The hair may grow again, but it will be light in color and much thinner than before. Two or three applications will permanently remove it. Delatone is rather expensive, but very little is required, and you need buy it only once.

G. W. K.: You should take better care of your hair, as a beautiful head of natural hair is much prettier than any false hair. Any signs of hair or scalp troubles such as dandruff, itching scalp, falling, dry, dull and brittle hair can easily be corrected by shampooing every other week with canthrox (see answer to Miss B. K.), and rubbing into the hair roots twice a week a quinine tonic made by dissolving one ounce quinzoin in one-half pint alcohol, then adding one-half pint cold water. Although you have been so disappointed in all the ready-made hair tonics you have tried, I know you will find this one will do what I say it will. It makes a very refreshing dressing for the hair and keeps it soft and glossy.

THE Goose Girl

By HAROLD McGRATH

Copyright by Bobbs-Merrill Company

As the figure of the head gardener diminished and shortly vanished behind a bed of palms, her highness laughed brightly, and Gretchen, to her own surprise, found herself laughing also, easily and without constraint.

"Whom were you seeking?" her highness asked, rather startled by the undeniable beauty of this peasant.

"I was seeking your serene highness. I live at number forty the Krumerweg, and the sick woman gave me this note for you."

"Krumerweg?' Her highness reached for the note and read it, and as she read tears gathered in her eyes. "Follow me," she said. She led Gretchen to a marble bench and sat down. Gretchen remained on her feet respectfully. "What is your name?"

"Gretchen, Highness."

"Well, Gretchen, sit down."

"In your presence, Highness?" aghast.

"Don't bother about my presence on a morning like this. Sit down."

This was a command and Gretchen obeyed with alacrity. It would not be difficult, thought Gretchen, to love a princess like this, who was not only lovely but sensible. The two sat mutely. They were strangely alike. Their eyes nearly matched, their hair, even the shape of their faces. They were similarly molded, too; only, one was slender and graceful, after the manner of fashion, while the other was slender and graceful directly from the hands of nature. The health of outdoors was visible in their fine skins and clear eyes. The marked difference lay, of course, in their hands. The princess had never toiled with her fingers except on the piano. Gretchen had plucked geese and dug vegetables with hers. They were rough, but toil had not robbed them of their natural grace.

"How was she?" her highness asked.

"About the same, Highness."

"Have you wondered why she should write to me?"

"Highness, it was natural that I should," was Gretchen's frank admission.

"She took me in when nobody knew who I was, clothed and fed me, and taught me music so that some day I should not be helpless when the battle of life began. Ah," impulsively, "had I my way she would be housed in the palace, not in the lonely Krumerweg. But my father does not know that she is in Dreiberg; and we dare not tell him, for he still believes that she had something to do with my abduction." Then she stopped. She was strangely making this peasant her confidante. What a whim!"

"Highness, that could not be."

"No, Gretchen; she had nothing to do with it." Her highness leveled her gaze at the flowers, but her eyes saw only the garret or the barnlike loneliness of the opera during rehearsals.

Gretchen did not move. She saw that her highness was dreaming; and she herself had dreams.

"Do you like music?"

"Highness, I am always singing."

"La—la—la!" sang the princess capriciously.

"La—la—la!" sang Gretchen smiling. Her voice was not purer or sweeter; it was merely stronger, having been accustomed to the open air.

"Bravo!" cried the princess, dropping book and whip and folding the note inside the book. "Who taught you to sing?"

"Nobody, Highness."

"What do you do?"

"I am a goose-girl; in the fall and winter I work at odd times in the Black Eagle."

"The Black Eagle. A tavern?"

"Yes, Highness."

"Tell me all about yourself."

This was easy for Gretchen; there was so little.

"Neither mother ior father. Our lives are something alike. A handsome girl like you must have a sweetheart."

Gretchen blushed. "Yes, Highness. I am to be married soon. He is a vintner. I would not trade him for your king, Highness," with a spice of boldness.

Her highness did not take offense; rather she liked this frankness. In truth, she liked any one who spoke to her on equal footing; it was a taste of the old days when she herself could have chosen a vintner and married him, with none to say her nay. Now she was only a pretty bird in a gilded cage. She could fly, but whenever she did so she bluntered painfully against the bright wires. If there was any envy between these two, it existed in the heart of the princess only. To be free like this, to come and go at will, to love where the heart spoke! She surrendered to another vagrant impulse.

"Gretchen, I do not think I shall marry the king of Jugendheit."

Gretchen grew red with pride. Her Highness was telling her state secrets.

"You love some one else, Highness?" How should a goose-girl know that such a question was indelicate?

Her highness did not blush; the color in her cheeks receded. She fondled the heart-shaped locket which she invariably wore round her throat. That this peasant girl should thus boldly put a question she herself had never dared to press!

"You must not ask questions like that, Gretchen."

"Pardon, Highness; I did not think," Gretchen was disturbed.

But the princess comforted her with: "I know it. There are some questions which should not be asked even by the heart."

This was not understandable to Gretchen; but the locket pleased her eye. Her highness, observing her interest, slipped the trinket from her neck and laid it in Gretchen's hand.

"Open it," she said. "It is a picture of my mother, whom I do not recollect having ever seen. Wait," as Gretchen turned it about helplessly. "I will open it for you." Click!

Gretchen sighed deeply. To have had a mother so fair and pretty! She hadn't an idea how her own mother had looked; indeed, being sensible and not given much to conjuring, she had rarely bothered her head about it. Still, as she gazed at this portrait, the sense of her isolation and loneliness drew down upon her, and she in her turn sought the flowers and saw them not. After a while she closed the locket and returned it.

"So you love music?" picking up the safer thread.

"Ah, yes, Highness."

"Do you ever go to the opera?"

"As often as I can afford. I am very poor."

"I will give you a ticket for the season. How can I reward you for bringing this message? Don't have any false pride. Ask for something."

"Well, then, Highness, give me an order on the grand duke's head vintner for a place."

"For the man who is to become your husband?"

"Yes, Highness.'

"You shall have it tomorrow. Now, come with me. I am going to take you to Herr Ernst. He is the director of the opera. He rehearses in the court theater this morning."

SPOTLIGHTS

GOOD MAJESTIC BILL

The Majestic theater this week offers to their patrons one of the most entertaining programs that has been seen here for many a week. It is replete with good music, dancing, singing, talking and excellent acting.

Yberri and Taylor

Yberri, the spectacular danseuse and Louise Taylor, soprana soloist, is one of the best acts on the program. As a dancer, Yberri has few equals in vaudeville. She makes a specialty of folk dances and portrays many of them. It is a high class singing and dancing novelty, which is well staged and handsomely costumed. Miss Taylor is an educated singer, one whose songs are always a delight to the musical portion of the audience. Yberri is seen in the dance of the U. S. A., an equestrian novelty of striking origin; the Spanish dance, suggesting the fire and the passion of the south; the Oriental dance, a new arrangement full of alluring suggestion but wholly pure and inoffensive and in the French dance, a whirlwind melange of high kicking and posturing.

For each dance Yberri has an entirely different costume, necessitating many rapid changes. The costumes are gorgeous creations of the dressmaker's and the designer's art, and add much to the effect of the act. It is a bright spot in an excellent bill.

"Dad's Dream"

Callahan and Cain, two actors of merit, appear in the comedy sketch entitled, "Dad's Dream." The act, enhanced much by the special scenery which is carried along, proved to be a hit last night.

The act takes about a quarter of an hour and is a wholesome and refreshing sketch to witness. It is an inspiring story, true to nature with plenty of comedy and pathos.

Miss Densmore

Miss Beth Densmore in her musical act last night scored a triumph. Having an excellent stage appearance and real musical ability she at once captivated the audience with her selections. She plays several instruments well and her act adds much to the program.

The show closes with the illustrated song sung by Miss Ida Aiken and an excellent film of motion pictures.

The boat was taken from back of the Lutheran hospital last October.

DANDRUFF CAUSED BY A GERM

A New Discovery That Kills the Germ and Prevents Baldness

Pretty nearly all the hair preparations for dandruff have some merit in allaying itching of the scalp, and in being a fairly good dressing for the hair, but there is only one that recognizes what causes dandruff, falling hair, and baldness and that destroys the cause, a little germ—and that is Newbro's Herpicide. This germ eats its way into the scalp, it digs up the scalp into little white scales. Unless it is destroyed there's no permanent stopping of falling hair and cure of dandruff and baldness. Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ. "Destroy the cause, you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. Hoeschler Bros., special agents.

TWO BARNS BURN ON NORTH SIDE

Structure Belonging to Abraham Scafe Consumed; the Fire Spreads Rapidly

Fire which threatened for some time to spread to the business establishments on Rose street between Hagar and St. Cloud streets, broke out in the barn of Abraham Scafe, in the alley on Hagar street between Mill and Rose streets, at about 3:50 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The fire was caused by children playing with matches. The alarm was turned in and the department No. 2 responded quickly. Because of the hay and dry material in the barn the blaze spread rapidly and a truck from department No. 4 was called to the scene. The barn adjoining started to burn and the flying sparks communicated with the Anderson barn about 100 feet north. The firemen soon had the conflagration under control, saving the Anderson barn. The other buildings are a total loss, the damage being estimated at about $75.

FARM BUILDINGS BURNED BY TRAMP

Stranger Refused Food, He Curses Women and Four of the Buildings Are Fired

Yesterday afternoon the large barn and three other outbuildings on the farm of William Hinkley on French Island were burned to the ground, and it is believed that a tramp who was refused food is responsible for the fire.

A stranger dressed in old blue overalls, short and stockily built, and wearing a battered derby hat, appeared at the Hinkley home and asked for food. The men were all in the field, and the hired girl refused to admit him. Heaping curses upon her the man disappeared around the barn. Within a few minutes the big barn was ablaze, and three other buildings ignited and were destroyed.

Mrs. A. Hinkley called Miss Rose Clifford of the Wisconsin Telephone company, who in turn notified all the neighbors by phone, and they rushed to the scene and succeeded in saving the house.

Th police are searching for the tramp.

COAST SERVICE TO START AUGUST 15

Through passenger service on the new transcontinental route of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road passing through La Crosse will be inaugurated on August 15. On that date, at 10 o'clock in the morning, the first through trains to be run over the line from Chicago to Seattle will start from those cities.

The equipment for these trains is being rushed to completion at Dayton and Pullman. It was first designed that the passenger cars, which will be of steel, would be sent to Milwaukee for electrical equipment and such changes as would be necessary to meet the demands of the road. This has been changed and the cars will be fully equipped where they are built and then sent forward to Chicago. From there the passenger, baggage, express and mail cars necessary for the opening of the service at the western end of the line will be forwarded to Seattle. These shipments will begin about July 25 and all the equipment necessary will be Seattle ready for the opening of the service on August 15.

This will be one of the heaviest propositions ever undertaken, as it is intended to run about twenty through trains between Chicago and Seattle. There will be, according to present arrangements, eight limited trains and ten slower trains. This means that 300 cars, passenger, baggage, express and mail, will be necessary.

Officials of the road, who returned recently from a trip over the line, say that the roadbed is in excellent condition.

SAYS WYOMING IS A FARMING STATE

Editor Tribune,
La Crosse, Wisconsin.
Dear Sir:

I have been shown an alleged interview published in the Morning Chronicle of your city in which one C. P. Lawrence is made to say that the state of Wyoming is practically worthless so far as farming is concerned.

I resent this statement and I am going to tell you the facts as I know them. I have lived in the states of Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota, and for the past ten years have been actively engaged in farming in South Dakota and still own land there. My home is in the city of Sioux Falls and any one interested in this letter is at liberty to write any bank or business house in that city as to my standing.

Two years ago I sold some land in South Dakota and then began looking around for a place for my boys. I gave all parts of the country a careful inspection and finally bought a ranch in this the Hulett country of Wyoming. This ranch has never had a drop of water on it except as it came naturally from rains, and the party owning it before me farmed it for years and never had a failure of crops. Last year this ranch raised an average of sixty bushels of oats to the acre by weight and all other crops were in proportion. I have invested some six thousand dollars in improvements on this land and it is not for sale. This ranch is not an exception by any means, but is just an ordinary ranch as ranches go here.

I have just come out from Sioux Falls to visit my boys and I was surprised to see the difference in the appearance of the country here and there. When I left home the lawns were dry, farming was away behind and the prospect was not particularly inviting. When I arrived here I found the grass green, the crops in splendid condition and every prospect of splendid crops this fall.

As I said before, there is no reason for any man to make the statement credited to Lawrence. He has wilfully misrepresented the facts or else has never been in this part of the state of Wyoming. I can truthfully say that this land is fine farming land, and that too without irrigation or any of the so-called dry farming methods. The yield per acre is enormous and as soon as farmers who know their business come in here the yield will surprise even the natives. I have seen field after field that was never plowed after it was broken, but has been farmed year after year by simply disking the stubble and this land will raise more to the acre than the land in the eastern states. All that is needed to double the yield is for a man to farm as he does in the older communities, haul out his manure and spread it. It is very seldom that one of the older setlers ever thinks of manuring the land or doing anything in the way of cultivating it except to disk in his crops and cut them when ripe. I know, from my vast experience in farming in the eastern states, that this land can not be beat anywhere for farming purposes and no man can come here and buy land at prevailing prices and not make money. This alleged statement that this land is not good for farming, if really made, is the most uncalled for and deliberate misstatement of facts that I have heard. I will be pleased to answer any letters that I may receive and I can assure your readers that if they will come out here and look this land over they will realize that here is the place for the man with limited capital and the land for the investor. I will be greatly pleased if you will give this letter space in your valuable paper.

Sincerely yours,
H. H. KIEHL.
Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

FRISCO GRAFTERS STOPPED THE BOUT

It wasn't the Minister, but the Big Mitt Fraternity Wanted Most of the Coin

NEW YORK, June 21.—Some inside history of the politics that has surrounded the Jeffries-Johnson fight and driven it from San Francisco, was told today by a prominent sporting authority, who has returned from the coast.

"Tex Rickard and Jack Gleason have been double crossed and whipsawed to a frazzle,' he said. "There were a lot of 'native sons' promoters who were wild when Gleason and Rickard coupled up and secured the fight.

"Jimmy Coffroth and Tommy McCarey had both put in bids and been beaten. So when Rickard first visited San Francisco he saw what he would be up against. He was boldly told he could not get a fight license. Rather than be held up he made a deal with Tom Williams who owns the Emeryville race track to hold the fight there. But these Frisco politicians got busy with the ministers and Williams balked. Then Rickard had to make the best possible terms in Frisco but the politicians there got an awful big cut.

"It is a good thing for Rickard that he is to hold the fight in Nevada. That is his home and he will get a square deal there.

"It is rumored on good authority in the west that the moving picture people have agreed to pay the purse of $101,000, in addition to the $150,000 they have paid for the picture rights. The moving picture people do not care whether anybody sees the fight. The fewer people who see the actual fight, the more to see the pictures later. So all Rickard will have to do to break even will be to take in $40,000 at the gate in Reno, if the fight is held there, to reimburse himself for the money he spent in arranging for the bout. He will do that and break even, but it's dollars to doughnuts Rickard is through with the fighting game. He has been double crossed once too often."

Free Sample Helps Weak Women

So many of the ills of women are due to constipation that too much warning cannot be given them to keep the bowels well open. They have a modesty and timidity about this that is positively dangerous to their health. It is a function that is as necessary as air and food and should not be avoided.

But it is important to know the remedy best suited to woman's needs. Cathartic pills and tablets are too powerful and salts and purgative waters are both powerful and nauseating. What is wanted is something milder and better tasting, but which at the same time is promptly effective. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin fills these requirements and is being taken by thousands of intelligent American women. They not only use it themselves, but having found it effective in their own case, they keep it in the house for other members of the family, for we are all called upon at some time or other to use such a remedy.

It is a safe and reliable laxative tonic and can be conveniently obtained of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. Before buying a bottle of your druggist the doctor invites you to make a test of it at his expense, and when you are satisfied it is what you want you can buy it in the regular way, just as thousands are doing. So, if you will send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell he will send you a sample bottle free of charge.

Thousands of people owe the present good health of their families to applying for a free sample bottle, for in this way they learned of an effective and inexpensive cure for constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sick headache, sour stomach and troubles of that kind that come from a disordered stomach, liver or bowels. The family of Harry T. Recker, 208 W. Monroe street, Chicago, are among the legions who highly praise this grand laxative and are glad to publicly say so.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on a postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R.524 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

He ate his dinner with the family at noon, but at 2 o'clock he became worse and fell into unconsciousness.

SAYS "TIPS" WEAKEN THE MORAL FIBER

CHICAGO, June 21.—When you decline to tip the college student waiter at the summer hotel, it isn't stinginess—its only part of the "uplift." At least that is the theory of Prof. R. P. Sibley of Lake Forest University, as embodied in an address to the student body. Prof. Sibley thinks that the crime of bribery has its origin in tipping and that the students who go to summer resorts to earn money for the college year get so accustomed to "easy money" that their moral fibre is weakened.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Miss Fidelia May Raymond and J. Davidson Huggins, both of this city, were granted a marriage license at Winona yesterday.

The budding barrister assumed the approved legal look of indisputable superiority.

"Now, my good lady," he observed, shaking an admonitory forefinger at the woman in the witness box, "you do not appreciate the gravity of the question. Endeavor to concentrate what brain power nature has endowed you with, and answer me. What relationship does the defendant bear to you?"

"Right-ho!" responded the good lady. "'Is father's cousin was my cousin once removed, and 'is mother, marryin' me uncle's only brother—"

"My good lady," interrupted the bud, despairingly, "I am not here to solve puzzles."

"Well, I'm blowed!" ejaculated the lady. "You was talkin' jest nah as though you'd cornered most o' the brain pahr goin'. If you 'adn't swanked quite so much I'd 'a' told yer plainly an' simply. 'E'se me brother."—Answers.

MIXINGWHITEWASH FOR MR. BALLINGER

"egulars" will "Exonerate" Him Again, but Dissenters will Tell Facts in Minority Report

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—When the Ballinger investigation committee meets next Saturday, it will take a vote as to the decision to be rendered in its probe and adjourn until late in the summer, when the opinions will be made public.

The meeting next Saturday will be perfunctory. The vote will be seven to five in favor of Ballinger. It is now stated that Representative Graham, democrat of Illinois will write the minority opinion; either Senator Sutherland, republican of Utah, or Representative Olmstead, republican of Pennsylvania, that of the seven majority and Representative Madison, republican of Kansas, an insurgent, a separate opinion against Ballinger.

The three opinions are to be made before the election this fall. It has definitely been determined not to attempt to present the committee's report to this session of congress but owing to pressure by the administration it is stated that the committee will break precedent by publishing the decision in advance of the meeting of congress next December.

SINGERS SICK; THE SCHIAVONIS HERE

Manager Frank Koppelberger of the Majestic theatre received a wire from St. Paul early yesterday morning that the Broadway quartette, which had been booked for this week at the theatre, would be unable to appear here owing to the illness of two of the members. By dint of much hustling, the enterprising manager was able to secure a much better attraction in the Schiavoni troupe of acrobats and athletes and the audience last night received one of the pleasantest surprises of the season.

The troupe appeared at a Milwaukee theater last week and were the sensation of the shows in that city. The troupe consists of four men and two young ladies, one of whom is the strongest woman who has ever appeared in the city. She thinks nothing of letting two men stand on her shoulder, one mounting on the other. She catches two men spinning rapidly over the floor in handsprings and balances each on her hands and walks about the stage with the men in the air. They were the sensation of the show last night and will continue to be for the remainder of the week.

TAFT TAKES ALL CREDIT FOR LAWS

Standpatters Say Administration Should Be Patted on Back for All Legislation

INSURGENTS TAKE IT, TOO

La Follette Says 19 Changes were Made for People and Many "Interest" Clauses Cut Out

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—It all depends on the point of view President Taft's said it. The regular republicans insist the credit belongs to them, the combined democrats and insurgents smile and declare it was all their victory.

The railroad law has many sponsors since yesterday's semi-official statement that the administration deserves credit for most of the legislation of the present session of congress. The claim that the president made is strongly endorsed by the regulars, and this has displeased many of the insurgents.

La Follette Pleased.

Senator La Follette claims that nineteen important changes were made in the bill by the insurgents, while the provisions most eagerly desired by the railroads and the regulars have been eliminated. Other progressives declare all the president got out of the bill was the commerce court and that the powers of that body were materially curtailed from the original plans.

It is the same with other legislation. President Taft admittedly got what he wanted when he got the naval increase. The statehood bill, the president and regulars say, they enacted. Progressives and democrats deny this.

The Taft conservation measures—the withdrawal and agricultural coal lands bill—were equally pleasing to the regulars and insurgents, and the progressives insist they should have all the credit for the bill permitting the issuance of government bonds to help the reclamation service.

The increased power and liberal appropriation given the tariff board are regarded with satisfaction by the progressives but they claim they are responsible for this legislation.

A man's idea of economy is to chew the same wad of gum before and after dinner.

MACHINE TO RULE PENN. CONVENTION

Since Taft Pulled Off Mr. Knox, Penrose Organization Has Everything Its Own Way

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 21.—With the ways well greased for the launching of a good old fashioned Penrose machine ticket at tomorrow's republican state convention, every delegation arriving here today fell into line for the organization slate. Even Mayor Magee of Pittsburg and his disgruntled band of anti-Penroseites with their exploded Knox boom, are not expected to throw any sand in the well oiled machinery.

Unless somebody gets in the way of Leader Boise Penrose, and there seems no liklihood of that Congressman John K. Tener of Charleroi, will be nominated for governor without a struggle. Penrose and his aides are busy today dickering for a man for second place on the ticket. Jos. R. Grundy, of Bucks county, was scheduled for lieutenant governor but he refused.

Congressman M. E. Olmstead is working today on the platform which will endorse the Payne-Aldrich tariff and the administrations of President Taft and Governor Stuart.

Lt. Gov. Robt. S. Murphy, who has been working for the gubernatorial nomination, announced after a conference with Penrose that he had not withdrawn from the fight.

LABOR WANTS NO LABOR PROSECUTIONS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—At the second session of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor today, several congressmen conferred with the members and were urged to retain in the sundry civil bill the provision that none of the appropriations shall be used for the "prosecution of workmen engaged in an effort to increase wages, reduce hours of labor and to improve conditions of employment, where such actions are not unlawful."

UNCLE SAM'S MEN ARE HELD READY

May Be Ordered to Mexican Border to Prevent Pre-Election Disorders

EL PASO, Texts, June 21.—So serious has the Mexican revolutionary situation become with the approach of the presidential election that the Mexican Government has asked the government of the United States to take steps to preserve neutrality along the border, according to special dispatches received today from Naco, Sonora. Simultaneously come reports that two troops of United States cavalry stationed at Fort Huachuaca have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's notice.

The Naco advices say President Arnold of Cananea today dispatched a detail of Mexican troops to Naco to protect the customs house there and to guard the border. All the women and children living along the Mexican side of the border, fled into American territory and slept there last night in order to be out of the way should serious trouble arise. A special train bearing a large force of soldiers from Hermasillo is expected to reach Naco this afternoon.

JOHNSON MAKES UP WITH LITTLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 21.—The pugilistic dove of peace which has been flying far from San Francisco for a couple of weeks, returned today and settled down upon the domiciles of Jack Johnson and George Little, his former manager.

The financial difficulties of Little and the giant black have been settled or nearly so, and the question as to whether Little presented Johnson with a "phony' check for $300 has also been cleared up. The two men got together peacefully today for the first time in several weeks.

Johnson did not let the uncertainty as to his training quarters at Reno interfere with his training work today. He was out on the road bright and early and reeled off ten miles before breakfast. Jack also announced that he would positively start for Reno Thursday morning. In view of his early getaway, he is determined to gather in all the coin he can before he departs and will box this afternoon and tomorrow for the benefit of enthusiasts who are willing to part with half of one dollar.

WILD SCENES ON MINNEAPOLIS CHANGE

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 21—In the wildest wheat market witnessed for many years the price advanced nearly five cents in a few minutes on 'change this morning. September wheat, which closed on Saturday at 94 cents, and had sold yesterday at 97 7-8, crossed the dollar line at the opening today and in a wild upward rush touched $1.02 1-2. The pit was packed with frantic brokers, filling orders to buy wheat that came in from the country on every wire.

There was no rain last night and temperatures continued to soar throughout the northwest today.

This slap was made by President Sydney C. Buxton, of the board of trade, at Col. Theodore Roosevelt today, in opening the international congress of chambers of commerce. The congress is being attended by nearly 500 delegates.

All Alone

A Denver man who visited the museum at City park recently tells of a farmer he saw there. The ruralist stopped in front of a portrait which showed a man sitting in a high backed chair. There was a small white card on the picture reading:

"A portrait of E. H. Smith, by himself."

The farmer read the card and then chuckled to himself:

"Regular fools these city fellers are," he said. "Anybody who looks at that picture 'ud know Smith's by by himself. They ain't no one in the paintin' with him."—Denver Post.

Grain Letter

CHICAGO, June 21.—Today's wheat market was mainly a repetition of that of yesterday except that it was more so for it was wildly excited, very nervous and active, and much higher. Opening prices were 1 to 2½ cents above the last quotations of Monday with wide variations in different parts of the pit at the same moment. Shorts were exceedingly anxious to cover. There was also some investment buying. It is wholly a weather market. The map showed no rains of consequence, not enough to do any good or relieve the droughty conditions so generally existing.

The same influence affecting wheat extended to corn with the result that the marker was quite active, nervous and higher, opening figures showing ⅛ to ⅜ cent advance over the close of yesterday, with shorts covering freely, and also fair commission house buying. It was one of the wildest openings seen in the oats pit in a good many years this morning. The trade has made up its mind that the crop is in a serious position owing to continued drought. The buying was of such large proportions that all individuality was lost sight of. Country houses and shorts were the most prominent.

Provision trade was quiet. This market was neglected for grains.

Close—Weather conditions caused wheat to advance all around, July advanced 2 1-4, September 1 1-4; December 2 3-8 over opening. Corn advanced slightly. Oats, July advanced 1-2, September and December 3-4 higher. Provisions closed weak.

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by O. T. Erhart.

WATER SCARCE IN CITY OF DENVER

DENVER, Colo., June 21.—It is perfectly legal to take a bath or wash dishes, but any person in Denver who attempts to water his lawn today is liable to arrest.

The situation is faced as the result of the efforts of the Denver Union Water Company to connect a new conduit with Denver. An injunction was secured by a tax payer, acting for the company in order to prevent an actual famine. To accomplish the connection of the new conduit, a daily supply of water had to be cut off.

The company's request that citizens use water sparingly was ignored and the injunction followed.

GETS HIS "STORY," BUT HE MAY DIE

WAUKESHA, Wis., June 20.—Rex Warden a newspaper correspondent here for Milwaukee and Chicago papers, is dying here, a martyr to his loyalty to the papers he represents. Overcome by the heat while working on an important newspaper story, he stayed on duty until his work was done, then fell unconscious and is not likely to live. Early today Warden learned of an automobile accident several miles from this city. He found that one was killed and several injured but the members of the party were trying to suppress their identity, and to keep out of the newspapers. Finally Warden learned the details of the story and hurried to telephone the news to Milwaukee. Just as he finished his message he fell unconscious, unable to hang the receiver of the telephone on the hook.

CHARLES TABAT TAKEN TO ELKADER

Charles Tabat of this city was taken to Elkader, Iowa, by Sheriff Martin Dittmer to answer to a charge of forgery. The sheriff had requisition papers and the prisoner was taken to Elkader on the afternoon train. He was accompanied by Attorney W. F. Wolfe, who will represent him. Tabat is charged with forgery in connection with taking orders for enlarging photographs.

GLIDDEN CONTINUES

TEXARKANA, Ark., June 21.—One of the longest runs of the tour confronted the Gliddenites when they left here today for their trip to Dallas, Texas, a distance of 217 miles. Car No. 6 withdrew on account of a broken axle, No. 12 burst a cylinder and No. 14 quit the tour after being burned out.

Bad BLOOD

Now I am entirely well, and the pimples have all disappeared from my face. I can truthfully say that Cascarets are just as advertised; I have taken only two boxes of them."

RUSSIAN FREED; GIVES HIS THEORY

COMO, Italy, June 21.—After being held ten days as a suspect in connection with the murder of Mrs. Mary Scott Castle Charlton, Constantine Ispolatoff ,the Russian, is today a free man and is apparently doing what he can to aid the police to solve the mystery.

Ispolatoff today gave the police his theory of the crime; that Porter Charlton the missing husband of the dead woman, killed his wife after long premeditation, as a result of brooding over some incident in her life previous to the time he met her. Ispolatoff offered nothing in substantiation of this theory except his own opinion, which he said was based on a close study of Charlton's actions.

ROCHESTER WINS IN 11 INNINGS

Long Game Is Won in Extra Round by the Surgeons by the Score of 5 to 3

FICHER'S TRIPLE WINS GAME

Grogan Singles and Substituted Pinch Hitter Slams for Three Bags, Winning the Game

Rochester, 5; La Crosse, 3. Eleven innings.

It was a hard set-to to stow away in the lost column, especially as we had such a nice chance to win it in the tenth round. Klein reposed on third base and Kuehn and Watson failed to hit in the pinch. It was just that inability to hit in the pinch that lost for the locals, while Fischer's timely swat won for Rochester.

Manager pro-tem Dunn trotted out the old teammate of the Outcasts, Cy Young, to work for the Surgeons. The lanky Saxon allowed but a few hits but was wild, being responsible for one of the La Crosse scores by walking a man in when the sacks were full. He was yanked in the seventh round after he had walked Ward and Little Chief Chase was chased from his resting place on the bench to the hill, where he held the Outcasts the rest of the game without allowing a hit of any sort.

Sy Prater, lately of Winona started the game for the local horsehide heavers, but allowed three hits in the first round, Wallace scoring. He was derricked to the bench and Watson hurled the rest of the game, doing good work. In the fifth round Wallace was chased from the field by Umps Agur for wrangling. Dippy "Merry Widow" Vance went to right field and Grogan, who had been playing the garden took to the short field. County Clerk Rawlinson, secretary and treasurer of the baseball association, was also chased from the bench by Agur and later in the next inning when he refused to move, the umps called in stentorian tones for help, directing his cries to Capt. Larry Dugan, who was in the grand stand. Charley left.

La Crosse tied the score in the fifth round, getting two runs on a hit and error, two bases on balls and a hit batter. Wais and Kuehn did the counting. Wais got the hit, the pellet going to center field.

Grogan, the first man up in the fateful eleventh, which was doomed to spell in big letters, defeat for the Outcasts, singled to center field. Kernan sacrificed him to second. Acting manager Dunn used his head to good advantage and sent in his pinch hitter, Umps Griffith announcing Fischer. The brilliant hued red haired catcher slammed a terrific drive to center field for three bags, scoring Grogan and scoring a little while later on a passed ball by Zalusky. Stewart struck out and Chase skied out to Klein.

Little Chief Chase chased Connell, Ward and Doll to the bench, striking out each of them in the wind up of the game. The battle was over and the Outcasts had lost the first extra inning contest of the season. The official score:

BADGER CREW MAY BE A DARK HORSE

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 21.—Rowing experts who have witnessed the last few days of training of the five college crews that are to take part in Saturday's big regatta becoming more and more convinced that the big varsity race is going to be a pretty even contest. The chief reason for this is the development in the Syracuse and Wisconsin crews, either one of which now looms up as a possible dark horse, though Cornell is still favorite, with Pennsylvania next.
